

Day 4

For the village of Heslington, its parish council, village trust and Holmfield committee. For all Outlook deliverers. For the residents of The Lodge and Sue Garnett, Liz Wilson, Deirdre Hopwood, Margaret Catley and Nancy as they lead services.

Day 5

For all families with young children. For Toddler Time for the under fives, Liz Lomas, Karen Lynch and Elisa Main who lead it. For the Social group and those organising fund-raising events.

Day 6

For those who look after the building and churchyard. For Bob Catley, general willing person, Janet Bolton, our cleaner, the grass cutters from YACRO, Ian Hardy, grave digger and all who help at working parties.

Day 7

For all who come to be married in our church and for all who are married. For the 20/20 social group and Bob and Margaret Cummings who coordinate it. For our Social committee led by Margaret Catley and all her helpers. For the Walking Group.

Day 8

For all who lead intercessions, read the Bible and welcome people. For the sidespersons and those who help behind the scenes with coffee and clearing away.

Day 9

For the staff and pupils of the primary schools in our parish and their head teachers, Andrea Hellam and Sheena Powley. For the pre-school playgroup.

Day 10

For Archbishop Holgate's School, its head, John Harris, staff and the work of the chaplaincy, Nancy and Richard Nihill, lay chaplain, and the R.E. staff.

Day 11

For any Outreach or training courses running at the moment and those who come to learn more and those who seek to help.

Day 12

For the members of the Church Council and its officers Linda Ali, Chair, Stephen Connor, Treasurer, Aileen Bloomer, Secretary and for the convenors of its working groups.

Day 13

For the community of Badger Hill, its local representative on the parish council and for the social events which happen here.

Day 14

For the music of our church. For our organist, Peter Main, relief organist, John Beilby, and our Band led by Rick Taylor that the diversity of music available to our church may find a place in our worship.

Day 15

For the children's groups and summer club of our church. For the children's leaders, Julie Warriner, Claire Hayden, Bob Cummings, John Eckersley, Kay Sanderson, Liz Lomas, Sarah Devaney and others who help.

Day 16

For the Youth Group meeting on Thursday evenings and Greg Melia, Marie Glenton and a rota of mums who help to lead this exciting new venture.

Day 17

For Newland Park Estate and the housing area around Windmill Lane. For Woodlands, its guests, staff and volunteers, thanking God for the pastoral care team.

Day 18

For the charities we support as a church CMS, USPG, Methodist Relief and Development Fund, YOYO, Arclight, Emmanuel hospital, Christian Aid and those they seek to help. For the Fair trade movement and those who run the stall Lizzie Butterworth, Matthew Naylor

Day 19

For the life of prayer in our parish and the prayer group. For the Thursday communion service.

Day 20

For the Men's meeting and Brian Blanchard organising the programme. For the Mothers' Union meetings, its committee, the programme, monthly communion and Bible study.

Day 21

For those in training for ministry in the church, Paul Harford and those examining a call to ministry. For the overseas students who worship with us.

Day 22

For the farming community of the parish, particularly those who are struggling and those most worried by the University expansion.

Day 23

For the flower ladies, Deirdre Hopwood, Pat Beckwith, Rosabelle Lonsborough, Margery Gollop, and helpers and those with artistic gifts who sewed the anniversary banner and create posters.

Day 24

For our links with surrounding churches in the Circuit, Deanery, cluster group, SE churches and Churches Together in York.

Day 25

For all at the University who work and study there. For the chaplaincy team, Rory, Tony and Rowan Williams the new Anglican chaplain arriving in March. For students settling in and those taking exams.

Day 26

For the team of Baptism visitors; Beryl Inman, Bob Cummings, and Kay Sanderson. For all those bringing their children for baptism or considering baptism or confirmation for themselves.

Day 27

For the Pastoral Visitors Contact scheme and Valerie Foote as she administers this. For all who are sick, lonely, in difficult relationships, bereaved or housebound.

Day 28

For the groups which use our building, Revelation Rock Gospel, the Korean Church, Yorchestra, the Ward Committee and those who book it occasionally.

Day 29

For our Wardens, Karl Jarvis and Bob Cummings and Stewards, Bob Catley and Melanie Drewicz and the responsibilities they carry.

Day 30

For those who help with the Eucharist, sacristans, chalice assistants and those who take communion to the sick; for Nora, Stephen, Ena, Mary, Brenda, Irene, Molly and Nora and Bob who regularly receive communion at home.

Day 31

For those on holiday, away visiting family or temporarily absent.

31st January, 2010

Prayer for Heslington parish

Almighty and everlasting God
by whose Spirit the whole body of the church is governed and sanctified, hear our prayer which we offer for our faithful people, that in their vocation and ministry each may serve you in holiness and truth to the glory of your name Amen.

Day 1

For our Sunday services, the regular congregation and visitors. For our clergy Nancy Eckersley and Rory Dalglish, our Reader John Eckersley and Local Preachers Peter Halls and Elisa Main.

Day 2

For the Brownies and Rainbows and their leaders, Janet Owston and Sue Laurence. For the Scouts, Cubs and Beavers and their leaders.

Day 3

For the administration of the parish and those who work in the Office, Christine Hallam, Valerie Foote and Jane Duke. Those who regularly count money, for Dorothy Holden who types the church newsletter and Gordon Thompson editor of 'Outlook'.